Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Isaiah 32:8

Isaiah, writing about the ideal servant of the Lord, tells us that:

“. . .those who are noble plan noble things, and by noble things they stand.”

Let us pray: Holy and loving God, we clearly are still caught in an ongoing period of “nobility deficit,” and we are not addressing nobility in rank, but in character. Indeed, across our land, and surely around the globe, there continue to be far too many leaders who care not much at all about doing what is right and just -- what is noble. Yet this is during a period when our world, our nation, our state, cries out for public servants who demonstrate moral qualities that are beyond reproach, for leaders who hold fast to highest ethical ideals, for women and men who choose to embody true “nobility” in every aspect of life. May it be, Lord, that each Senator and aide who serves here in the Senate of South Carolina will always be counted among that group of leaders who are indeed noble, giving their very best for the people they serve. In Your wondrous name we pray, O Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.
